

The Full Court Press...from The Starting Five

3,054 people dribbled basketballs on Monument Circle in October. *

We had a food drive that raised 85,300 pounds or 42.65 tons of food.

People do amazing things everyday.

THIS INCLUDES GIVING BACK.

The Starting Five are here to let you know how they are charitable in their community.

Jermaine O'Neal

"I threw a Christmas party for 300 children from local charities such as NOAH, Children's Bureau of Indianapolis, and United Christmas Service. We played games, enjoyed good food, and opened presents."

Tamika Catchings

"I have my own charity called the Catch the Stars Foundation and I encourage kids to be the best they can be in school, sports, and in their communities."

"We helped a local elementary school with a state wide food drive during Thanksgiving."

Quinn Buckner

"We served hot meals to more than 500 homeless men, women, and children for Thanksgiving at Conseco Fieldhouse."

Pacemates

Are you ready to give back?

The holidays aren't the only time you can make a difference using your time, talent, or treasure.

Get five of your family members, friends, or classmates together and do something for your community!

The Starting Five does and so can you!

Make sure to track your good deeds by going to theleague.org.
